Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (B), 19 July, 2009

Fr. John writes,

Christ the Good Shepherd. Today we celebrate the Shepherd who leads all men to the Father, however far apart they may be in race and culture.

Hopefully, by the time you read this I will be in North Yorkshire for my Summer Holiday. I thank Fr. Brian for ministering to you my 'flock' in Westgate, and I trust that you will give him as you always do a very warm welcome and appreciation of his service to you. You will my dear people be in my prayers.

MESSAGE OF THANKS FROM ARCHBISHOP KEVIN

I wish to express my sincere thanks to all those who took part in the Diocesan Day to Celebrate the Year of St. Paul at Aylesford on Saturday 27th June. It was a vibrant and memorable celebration. Over 3,000 people from parishes and deaneries across the diocese came together as one family in a great spirit of joy and thankfulness to listen to the Word of God in the morning Mass and the afternoon liturgy. I wish to thank in particular the Carmelite Friars at Aylesford for their very warm welcome and all those who worked so hard to make the Day such a success. I encourage you, as I did on the day, to continue to listen attentively to the readings of St. Paul, particularly at the Sunday Mass, and to read his letters. ✠ Kevin

ANGLICAN CHURCH'S ANNIVERSARY

The local Anglican Church in Westgate is celebrating its 125th anniversary. Among the many events which have been held there is a special Anniversary Service of Evensong this Thursday evening, 23 July, at 7 pm. The preacher will be the Revd. Bob Woods, minister of the Christ Church URC. Refreshments served after the service.

Tea & Coffee after Sunday 10 am Mass – Come along it's ONLY 20p a drink!

There are two Parish Events which will need input from parishioners.

1. The Christmas Fair. We should start thinking about organising this now. If you are able to help in either the organisation or working on the day then please put your name on the list.
2. St. Peter's Centenary Celebrations. Our 100th birthday as a Parish takes place next year. It is planned to centre the celebration around the dates of the Feasts of the Sacred Heart and Saints Peter & Paul (June, 2010). If you can help plan next year's celebration add your name to the list.
